DEATH TOLL OF HINDENBURG NOW AT 35

The slain dazed from the flames. His progeny, Captain Max Pruss, who had been overboard for that fatal first voyage here this year, was in critical condition from burns.
About an hour before Lehmann's death, the ship had successfully completed her west-bound crossing over the North Atlantic, was under normal control in every respect and was making a normal landing.
"Whatever may have been the cause," he continued, "the loss of the Hindenburg was attributed only to one basic cause, namely, that of fire. Had the ship been inflated with the non-inflammable, non-explosive helium gas, such as is used in American dirigibles, a catastrophe would have been impossible."
Earlier in the day, the senate committee on Commerce had approved a bill which would liberalize commercial sale and export of non-inflammable helium, of which the United States has a monopoly.
Dr. Eckner, heading a German investigation commission ordered to America by the Hitler government, indicated the famous Graf Zeppelin, now operating in Europe, may be grounded until Germany obtains helium.
Germany, appalled by the loss of its $2,000,000 ship menarche—the crown jewel of the achievement of years of successful dirigible construction—sent its own investigators hurrying across the Atlantic, headed by Dr. Eckner, who wept when he heard the news.

Pulse of Empire Grows Faster as Crowning Nears

LONDON, May 8.—The pulse of an Empire beats faster today and a spirit of joyous expectancy pervades the great metropolis as the time approaches for the coronation of King George VI and Queen Elizabeth.

LONDON NOW GAYEST CITY FOR CROWNING

The stage is set and a world-wide audience awaits the rise of the curtain. Westminster, evening, a British united in a demonstration of devotion and solemn homage. Months of preparation find almost everything in readiness for the historic event.
Weeks of rehearsals will be brought to a close Monday, when the coronation drive will be held in Westminster Abbey, with all the participants except the King and Queen filling their proper roles. Understudy will act for the King and Queen, and the actual ceremony of coronation will be rehearsed with imitation crowns and regalia.
The King and Queen have visited the Abbey on several occasions and been made thoroughly acquainted with the coronation procedure by the Earl Marshal, the Duke of Norfolk, who is in charge of all arrangements. They have also rehearsed the coronation ritual in private.
Their Majesties rest at the royal lodge at Windsor, where they will spend the night before the coronation. They returned to London yesterday last night. They returned to London yesterday last night. They returned to London yesterday last night.

London, converted into a veritable fairland of color, is abuzz with the festive spirit. Thousands of visitors from almost every quarter of the world have poured into the city during past weeks. Foreign longlines and warlike armies are here everywhere and business has been stimulated to the proportions of a boom.
Mingled with the civilian visitors are the colorful contingents of military representatives from all outposts of empire.

Arrival of Canada's main contingent brings the overseas forces to full strength. In the center, all sections of the defense forces. Canadians attract popular demonstrations wherever they appear.

Chorine In Flood Water Kills Plants
LONDON, Ont., May 8.—Chorine in city water has killed 25 per cent of the plants in the public utilities commission greenhouses. It was learned today. Extra chorine had been poured in the water after London's disastrous flood.

RESERVING RIGHTS

But like all the British some of His Majesty's loyal subjects are reserving their rights of individuality and Chapelle-Dale in the coronation country has announced that as its own people were not to be disturbed by the royal community of London, and the coronation could be celebrated without music, it has postponed its coronation festivities until June 8.

That may be the official excuse, but the timing of the British fugitive is a fact. It is also a fact that Wednesday is market day in Chapelle-Dale and there is much trouble with the new lamb, which has also been a factor in the postponement. Of the whole British Empire Chapelle-Dale will be out of step on Wednesday but the joy of its people is unquestioned.
Strong interruptions to the coronation of the British Empire and Queen right royal acclaim at the outset of their reign. The major rehearsal at the Abbey with the chief actors both royal and spiritual will be held on Wednesday and the coronation will be held on the same day as the royal wedding. The Duke of Windsor, destined from Victoria to greet the woman whom he has loved since the "big woman I love."

CAN'T FORGET EDWARD

There was a great show and a real thriller, but when the evening papers came out it was found that a pair of Queen flowers and the first kiss of the reunited lovers had quieted down the page night with the stock market reports, while the story of the lower election made the prime position on page one.
More than in London skipped a beat at the thought of that region of the world where the first authentic scenes from this pageant of empire. There was no difficulty in this involuntary turn toward a drama in France, but at the point of that old adage, that all the world loves a lover.

GET BEHIND DRIVE

The Christian Army will collect clothing and other household goods if they are notified where to pick them up. Major Acton and his officers have offered their whole-hearted co-operation. Their whole resources are at the disposal of the relief agencies but Edmonton citizens in general must get behind the drive and put this relief effort across.

These people, and numerous others in surrounding districts, need to be rehabilitated at once. I am speaking for the entire Red Cross organization. I am sure, in extending our services that Mr. Mitchell was able to bring in these much-needed supplies at once and that the Chamber of Commerce, Salvation Army and citizens generally are now rallying to the relief of these people. said Canon C. F. A. Clough, local head of the Edmonton Red Cross.

Clough is appealing for funds. Canon Clough said that the fire victims had lost almost everything, and as many had been poor to begin with, they were now destitute.

IMMEDIATE ACTION

"I am pleased to report," continued Major Acton, "that the C.P.A. has contacted to send all supplies to Britain and district without any cost whatsoever."
"If only we could get people to realize the tragic extent of the disaster, I am sure they would help. These citizens of Alberta have lost everything, many of them. They have no clothes on their backs and no furniture on which to rest. Poor to begin with, they now have nothing at all. They are our own people. We cannot and will not let them starve."

The drive will continue until the needs of the distressed population is satisfied. Officials of the three organizations carrying on the campaign will meet Saturday.

This is your opportunity to do your bit. Send in your cash donations to The Bulletin or the Chamber of Commerce. Call 2607 to have your clothing, furniture, bedding and kitchen utensils donated to the drive.

Far from the burning sands of their desert country, these children of Egypt, sons of the Pharaohs, are visiting with their brother, Prince Faith, in being taken for a high ride by her older sister, Princess Fekia.

"I am pleased to report," continued Major Acton, "that the C.P.A. has contacted to send all supplies to Britain and district without any cost whatsoever."

BASEBALL SIT STRIKE UPSETS EASTERN SCHOOL

MONTREAL, May 8.—Baseball fever brought a Montreal high school a short-lived pupil air-down strike Friday.
Scheduled opening International League game prompted seventh-year students at Guy Drummond school to convene "in the basement after noon recess and issue an ultimatum that they would strike unless they were permitted to go to the ball game."

The strike looked good to the students—mostly boys—until school authorities showed their hand.

"We sent two or three of the ringleaders home for a couple of days to cool their heels," said W. Allen Walsh, superintendent of Protestant schools. Parents would take care of more drastic disciplinary measures he thought.

The students found out they were at the wrong knothole anyway. But forced postponement of the game.

PREMIER MET MONEY BARONS SAYS HASLAM

No Further Interest in Social Credit, Charges Nanton Member

CLAREHOLM, Alta., May 8.—H. O. Haslam, insurgent Social Credit member of the Alberta legislature for Nanton-Clareholm, speaking here last night charged that since a "secret meeting" in Edmonton held in March, 1936, Premier Aberhart has shown "no interest whatever" in plans for introduction of Social Credit.

Mr. Haslam said the premier, after 20 months in office, had not taken even the first step toward implementing Social Credit. "I firmly believe he never intends to do so," he added.

Mr. Haslam charged that the premier and his provincial secretary are at the head with "financial interests," but he had no knowledge of what happened.

The Nanton-Clareholm member, speaking at a public meeting here, said the premier admitted having no plan for implementing Social Credit but would "give the people honest government."

PLASTY WHO CAN

If Mr. Aberhart could not finish the work, there are "plenty of men" in Alberta fit and capable to run the office of premier and there are men willing to introduce Social Credit, said Mr. Haslam.

Major C. H. Douglas, founder of Social Credit and now in England, sought as adviser for the Alberta Social Credit Commission, was nominated by Mr. Haslam as "capable and willing."

Prior to leaving for Calgary where he will spend the week-end, Premier William Aberhart denied a statement by H. O. Haslam, K.C., Social Credit member of the legislature, that he had attended a secret meeting of financial interests.

"I don't know what meeting Mr. Haslam is referring to and would like more details," declared the premier.

The group voted confidence in Mr. Bourcier to enforce Social Credit, even if necessitating formation of a new government.

Special to Edmonton Bulletin
RIMBY, Alta., May 8.—Five of unknown origin completely destroyed the two-story home and contents of Rimby, a small town in the south and one mile east of Rimby, last night.

Mrs. Langmaid was working in the garden when the house was destroyed by fire. She was rescued by neighbors and taken to the hospital.

The baby was seriously burned on the face and stomach. Two other children, aged four and two years, were playing outside when the house was destroyed.

Slenderizing

With the summer sun beaming in all its glory, the urge to get into a bathing suit is once again stirring human hearts, especially if the swim suit is one like the slenderizing model, called "Bra-Sli," worn by Lynn Bari (above).

Presbytery Hits Radio Sermons With Politics

Broadcasting Corporation To Be Petitioned
By Edmonton Pastors Of United Church Of Canada

Asserting that the use of radio on Sunday for the broadcasting of partisan political propaganda and commercial advertising tends to secularization of the Sabbath the members of the Edmonton Presbytery of the United Church of Canada Friday decided to petition the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation to enact regulations which would eliminate these two forms of Sunday broadcasting.

In the resolution which will be forwarded to the Broadcasting Corporation, to leaders of political parties in the province and to the press, it is stated that such broadcasting is a misuse of the radio and should be eliminated.

The Presbytery was also critical of the Canadian government's policy in regard to the liquor traffic and expressed disappointment that increased liquor sales were provided for in the 1937 budget and also that the government had restored the policy of free delivery of beer.

This, it was considered, would indicate the government "is making itself a liquor sales rather than a liquor control agency."

WORK RUSHED ON SISTER SHIP TO HINDENBURG

Big Airship May Be Commissioned Within Next Three Months

BERLIN, May 8.—Indubitably by the time the Hindenburg, the German government moved today to place another giant airship in service between Europe and North America as soon as possible, probably within three months.

After a conference with the veteran dirigible commander, Dr. Hugo Eckener, the Reich's air minister, General Hermann Goering ordered the shipbuilders at Friedrichshafen to rush to completion the LZ-129, which was to have been the sister-ship to the Hindenburg.

Officials of the air ministry estimated General Goering's order meant completion of the new dirigible soon enough to permit her to take the Hindenburg's place in the Transatlantic air lanes within three months.

In a proclamation addressed to the men of the German air service, General Goering announced his decision to speed up completion of the LZ-129 and added:

"Working shoulder to shoulder, we men of the German air service want to show the world that in spite of everything, the idea and the enterprise spirit of Count Zeppelin persists. But airship communication between nations is a work of peace, hindering progress, clear together and simply can not be eliminated at this stage of world development."

Dr. Eckener, who rushed back to Berlin from Australia on hearing of the disaster at Lakehurst, expressed similar sentiments in a radio broadcast.

No Real Setback, Declares Mobile Of Hindy Tragedy

CAMERA PREVIEW OF LONDON'S BIG SHOW

"...All the King's Men" in Dress Rehearsal QUEENLY GREETING Pictorial Forecast of Coronation Pageantry

The tramp of marching regiments, the beat of martial music, the splendor of parade uniforms are increasingly evident in London as every effort is bent toward making the coronation of King George VI an unmatched spectacle. Above, the Scots Guards march behind skirling pipes, resplendent in huge stalks, colorful tunics and polished brass, just as they will be in the coronation parade. In the background is grim Tower of London.

The happiest soldiers in England would be those with whom Queen Elizabeth shook hands on Coronation day. It is not likely that she will have time for such informality on that occasion, but at a pre-coronation function above she graciously greets an officer of the Guards Brigade.

Imagine the stands at right filled with colorful throngs, gay with bunting and royal insignia. Then you will have an idea of what the big coronation spectacle will look like to the average Londoner; for pictured is the State Coach passing through Parliament Square in a rehearsal of the big procession. Through line the curbs and in the background is the famed Big Ben clock on the Parliament Building, whose chime will afford one of the best views of the procession.

FARMERS NOT UNITED OVER WHEAT BOARD

Conflicting Views Are Laid Before Turgeon Probe At Calgary

CALGARY, May 8.—With further viewpoints of farmers on the record, the Turgeon Royal Grain Commission resumed sessions with John I. McFarland of Calgary, formerly in charge of government arbitration, on the witness stand.

Examination of McFarland by Hon. J. L. Ralston, K.C., was expected to continue today.

Robert Gardiner, former member of parliament for Acadia, urged appointment of a wheat board to market the whole Canadian wheat crop. A complete change in economics to co-operative principles was required, he said, in extending readjustment of marketing and final policies would not permanently solve farm problems.

OPEN MARKET
Charles W. Noddy, farmer of Aldred, 18 miles north of here, favored voluntary wheat pools and examination of the open market while William Macdonald, farmer of DeWinton, 29 miles south of Calgary, opposed compulsory marketing in any form and favored the open market.

TAX PAYMENTS BOOST CANADA BANK'S ASSETS

OTTAWA, May 8.—The national agency of the income tax showed itself in today's weekly Bank of Canada statement.

"All other assets" jumped to $487,282 on May 3 from $258,899 on April 28. This item, which represents cheques in the mail on the way to being cleared, reflected some of the last minute rush by harassed taxpayers to escape the penalty imposed for non-payment after April 30.

Due to transfers at New York, the bank's total reserve was reduced from $209,609,942 to $204,571,321 and the ratio of net reserve to notes and deposit liabilities was down from 12.2 per cent to 11.46 per cent.

Total deposits were reduced from $243,133,364 to $239,980,026, largely as result of Dominion government withdrawals. Chartered bank deposits were $137,623,063 compared with $137,790,642.

Notes in circulation increased to $136,986,777 from $129,480,232.

MONTREALER IS BLOWN YARDS IN ZEPP BLAST

Youth Was Standing by To Take Picture When Bowled Over

MONTREAL, May 8.—Blown several feet by the explosion of the Zeppelin, Henderson R. L. Whitehead of Montreal telephoned home from Labrador a ground observer's impressions of the tragic blast.

"I was standing by the moving car ready to get a picture of the Hindenburg landing," the youth Montrealer told his mother over the phone. "Suddenly, there was a terrific explosion."

"I landed on my neck. Then I picked myself up and saw the Hindenburg. You don't know how far you can run until you get caught in something like that."

When the explosion came, Whitehead said, "The big ship was maneuvering into position where the ground crew could reach it. The blast was 'like thunder,' and pieces of the airship 'flew apart and flames shot out everywhere."

CROWD SHOCKED
Confusion gripped the shocked crowd at the field, according to Whitehead's telephone description of the scene. "Went of all," he added, "was the smell of burning human flesh."

A split second before the detonation, Whitehead said, he snatched a photograph—perhaps the last of the giant German dirigible in all its silver glitter as it moved toward the ground.

The fight quickly made the passing of Cantorino's three-time world's champion, as a "five" time fighter, although Tony, who last week promised to hang up the gloves if he failed to win his former opening matter, said he would not be so inclined.

MORE ABOUT EATON'S

Talking about Spring and a man's fancy... if said man has enough good black hair on his estate to fill even one small window-box, has thought by now been turned to gardening.

The Grandest Gadgets...

For this chap with the gardening bend, are on parade in the Hardware Section. Maybe a dandelion rake isn't news to you, but it was to us. And good news. Think of just raking away the pesky little things? As for the new kinds of hoses—not just the plain or garden variety mind you, but the scuffle hose and the sort of hose type—why, they're marvelous!

"House Vacant"...

More than just one little dwelling house this morning to prospective tenants. Such desirable little houses there are, with their sloping eaves and bright roads. The occupants must be of the fastidious variety, though, we're afraid. It's the new bird houses we're talking about. Want to invite a little grey wren to live in your front garden? Thinking of urging those bluebirds to nest? We can think of the more enticing invitation than one of those new houses from our Hardware Section.

Saladino Racquet Restringer

It's the only "Saladino" in the city. Your racquet can be strung to 75 or 80 pounds pressure. What's more, while the stringing is going on the racquet head is held securely, minimizing its chance of warping, and retaining its original shape. When repairs or stringing are done a record is made of the tension, which makes it possible to make future repairs exactly. Sounds pretty efficient, doesn't it? It is—and furthermore, very pleasing in its price.

WHILE "DADDY" WARBUCKS LOOLS CARELESSLY IN THE FANCIED SECURITY OF HIS RIVER-SIDE RETREAT—

HMM—RADIO OUT OF ORDER—NO DIFFERENCE—WE'RE PERFECTLY SAFE HERE—

IT WOULD BE USELESS IN THE RIVER—OUR MEN WILL SURROUND THE HOUSE ON THE SWAMP SIDE—OUR TWO ARMED BOATS WILL BLOCK THE RIVER—WARBUCKS AND HIS MEN WILL BE OVERWHELMED BEFORE THEY HAVE A CHANCE TO DEFEND THEMSELVES—

SO YOU'RE READING HISTORY, EH? ALL ABOUT "THE HUNDRED YEARS WAR" NICE SCRAP, WHILE IT LASTED—YEP—I SOLD ARMS TO BOTH SIDES—DID A PRETTY GOOD BUSINESS—

BR-R-R—WARS ARE TERRIBLE—WOULDN'T YOU THINK FOLKS WOULD LEARN SOME TIME HOW FOOLISH WARS ARE?

WHY, I REMEMBER FOUR HUNDRED MILLION YEARS AGO—THERE WAS AN OLD ONE-ARMED CHAP WHO TRIED TO WARN PEOPLE AGAINST THE PTERODACTYLS—THEY'D NEVER SEEN ANY—HE HAD—

LEAPIN' LIZARDS! WEREN'T THOSE PTERODACTYLS THOSE FLYIN' REPTILES THAT'D EAT PEOPLE?

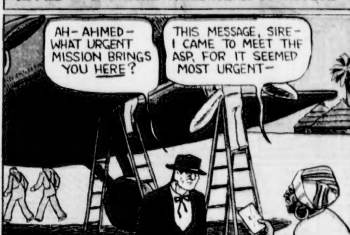

BORIS SIROB PREPARES TO DEAL A FINAL AND DEVASTATING BLOW—

EVERY ONE IS AN EXPERT WITH A MACHINE GUN—OR WITH A KNIFE—

MANY ARE VETERANS OF JUNGLE CAMPAIGNS, BORIS—ARE THEY NOT PERFECT FOR OUR USE?

FAR, FAR AWAY, IN A FOREIGN LAND, A GIANT PLANE HAS PROPPED TO A LONELY LANDING FIELD TO RE-FUEL—A STRANGE FIGURE DASHES TO THE PLANE—

AH—AHMED—WHAT URGENT MISSION BRINGS YOU HERE?

THIS MESSAGE, SIRE—I CAME TO MEET THE ASP, FOR IT SEEMED MOST URGENT—

THEY WILL DO—SEND THEM BELOW, AND BATTEN DOWN THE HATCHES—TILL WE ARE BEYOND THE CHANCE OF SPYING EYES—BE READY TO SAIL IN AN HOUR—

WHAT OF THE SUBMARINE?

THE ASP READS THE MYSTERIOUS MESSAGE, THEN WITH FRANTIC HASTE THE PLANE IS SERVICED, TURNED AROUND, AND ROARS BACK TOWARD THE PLACE FROM WHENCE IT CAME—

FOLKS AREN'T MADE THAT WAY, ANNIE—YOU CAN TELL THEM THE FACTS YOU KNOW FROM EXPERIENCE—SHOW THEM FIGURES TO PROVE EVERY CLAIM YOU MAKE—BUT NO ONE EVER REALLY LEARNS THAT WAY—

EXPERIENCE—THAT'S THE ONLY TEACHER—BUT DOWN WITH EXPERIENCE! IN EVERY AGE THE CALLOW YOUTH IS SURE HE'S GOT A NEW ANGLE—THAT THE OLD FOSSILS ARE ONLY WINDBAGS, BLOCKING PROGRESS—

YES! WELL, ONE DAY A SWARM OF THEM DROPPED INTO TOWN—AFTER THAT THE FEW PEOPLE WHO ESCAPED ALIVE KNEW ALL ABOUT PTERODACTYLS—FOR THE OTHERS, IT DIDN'T MATTER ANY MORE—

WHEW! BUT SPOSE NOBODY THEY BELIEVED THEM EITHER—

HMM—COME TO THINK OF IT—I CAN HARDLY BELIEVE HIM—THAT OLD GUY MUST BE LOONEY—GEE—"DADDY'S" TAKIN' A NAP—LUCKY THERE AREN'T ANY PTERODACTYLS TO WATCH OUT FOR THESE DAYS—

IT'S AN OLD SAYING, AND AS TRUE TO DAY AS IT EVER WAS, "CLOTHES MAKE TH' PERSON—CLOTHES GIVE FOLKS CONFIDENCE—"

YIS—IT'S AN OLD SAYIN', ALL RIGHT, BUT OIM NOT SO SURE IT'S AS TRUE TO DAY AS IT ONCE WAS—NOT BY A LONG SHOT—

HA! I GUESS YOU'LL HAVE TO ADMIT CLOTHES GIVE FOLKS CONFIDENCE TO GO PLACES THEY'D NOT DARE GO WITHOUT CLOTHES—

HMM—AS I SAY, THAT WAS TRUE ENOUGH WHEN WE WERE YOUNG—THIN EVEN TH' BATHIN' SUITS WAS MADE OUT O' HORSE-BLANKETS—

BUT TO DAY? HA! JUST LOOK AT THE YOUNG CHITS—PRACTICALLY NAKED—YIT TH' LESS CLOTHES ON THEIR BACKS TH' MORE CONFIDENCE THEY SEEM TO HAVE—

by
WILLIAM KEROUX

MOLES

ARE FOUND FROM ENGLAND TO JAPAN, AND FROM COAST TO COAST, EXCEPTING ARID SECTIONS IN NORTH AMERICA.

THE MOLE IS WELL-FITTED FOR THE LIFE IT LEADS, HAVING LITTLE USE FOR EYES AND EARS. THESE ORGANS HAVE ALMOST DISAPPEARED. THE POWERFUL SHOVEL-LIKE FORE FEET ARE ARMED WITH SHARP CLAWS, AND THE STREAMLINED LITTLE CREATURE FAIRLY "SWIMS" THROUGH THE EARTH. THE VELVETY FUR LIES FLAT IN ANY DIRECTION IT IS BRUSHED.

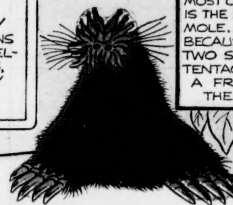

THE ANIMAL SPENDS MOST OF ITS LIFE JUST BELOW THE SURFACE OF THE GROUND, WHERE IT TUNNELS ABOUT IN SEARCH OF FOOD. SO CLOSE TO THE SURFACE DOES IT TRAVEL, THE GROUND IS RAISED IN RIDGES, WHICH GREATLY DAMAGE LAWNS.

IF PLACED ON SOFT GROUND, A MOLE CAN BURY ITSELF IN TEN SECONDS. THEY HAVE BEEN KNOWN TO BURROW SEVENTY-FIVE YARDS IN A SINGLE NIGHT.

CONTRARY TO POPULAR BELIEF, MOLES DO NOT EAT VEGETATION, BUT LIVE ON EARTHWORMS AND INSECTS! THEY CAN GO ONLY A FEW HOURS WITHOUT FOOD, AND MUST HUNT ALMOST CONTINUOUSLY.

OPEN, 1937 BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

MOST CURIOUS OF ALL IS THE STAR-NOSED MOLE... SO-NAMED BECAUSE OF TWENTY-TWO SHORT, FLESHY TENTACLES, FORMING A FRINGE ABOUT THE NOSTRILS.

IT IS SUPPOSED THAT THE APPENDAGES INCREASE THE ANIMAL'S ABILITY IN LOCATING ITS PREY.
